

PALRING

Where Palring covers are being used in double layers, the covers should be inflated at all times to avoid excessive wear from wind flapping covers against structures. Otherwise, batten strips should be used over the bottom cover.